DIARY NOTES

25X1A

DD/S

24 November 1959

I spent the day working on the Fiscal Year 1961 Budget and met with the Director, ^{25X1A}
Bob Amory, Lyman Kirkpatrick and [REDACTED] who represented Dick Bissell. While ^{25X1A}
no decisions were reached it was indicated tentatively that we might accept [REDACTED] [REDACTED] reduction in our regular operations and that we would accept the Bureau of the Budget's position on replenishment of the Reserve, i.e., no new money for this purpose.
However, we are to have another meeting with Dick Bissell tomorrow morning and a meeting with Bob Macy, Bureau of the Budget, tomorrow afternoon and presumably a final meeting in which this will all be settled with Mr. Stans at 10:30 a.m. on Friday morning.
